Hepatitis B Vaccination Policy

All students enrolled in the clinical education phase of the Radiologic Technology Program will be required to provide evidence of vaccination against Hepatitis B. Any student unable to provide this documentation must sign a waiver of liability releasing Wallace College, Clinical affiliates, and agents from any responsibility from contraction of this disease.