DDT 216: Design of Structural Wood Members

This course provides theory for structural wood members. Joists, beams, girders, rafters, posts, and columns are designed as related to residential and light commercial needs. Bending moment, shear, and slenderness rations are discussed as well as code requirements.

Credits: 3
Lab Hours: 0
Lecture Hours: 3