

Advising Services

Wallace Community College provides professional advisors to assist students in identifying, planning, and achieving appropriate educational and career goals. Academic and career advising services are designed to support students in making informed decisions and successful adjustments to college life. Advisors are available to help students navigate academic requirements, explore career options, and develop strategies for achieving long-term success.