

Gainful Employment Disclosure

A gainful employment (GE) program is any Title IV financial aid eligible, non-degree (certificate) program that trains students for specific employment in recognized career fields. GE programs at Wallace Community College are included in the Career and Technical and Health Sciences divisions. In compliance with guidelines established by the U.S. Department of Education, disclosure information regarding GE programs may be reviewed by visiting the College's Web site utilizing the following link: http://www.wallace.edu/programs_of_study/gainful_employment_ge_program_disclosures.aspx.
