

General Rules

Clinical assignments on any day are based on an eight (8) hour shift. However, no student will be permitted to leave a patient during the course of an examination, even if such completion requires remaining on duty beyond the end of the shift. The student is required to complete the examination (this includes getting the films checked for necessary repeats or additional films and seeing that the patient is dismissed from the department).