

Physical and/or Mental Disability

In the event that a student incurs a physical and/or mental disability while in the RPT Program, the student will be maintained only if the disability does not inhibit the effectiveness of the student in the clinical areas and does not present a safety hazard for patients, other students, or personnel.