

Police Academy

Official certification of completion of Police Academy graduation must be provided to the College. Certification indicating date of graduation must be either an academic transcript from an accredited college or a letter on official letterhead from the Police Academy. On completion of 6-12 semester hours of approved Criminal Justice (CRJ) courses at Wallace Community College, students may be awarded credit for an equivalent number of CRJ hours to be determined by the program instructor.