

RPT Course Audit

RPT Courses Cannot Be Taken As Audit

It is now the policy of the Respiratory Therapist Program that no courses within the RPT curriculum will be made available for audit. This policy is effective as of February 7, 2002. Courses within the curriculum must be taken for credit even if a student chooses to repeat a course that has already been successfully completed.