

State Authorization Regarding Distance Education

In accordance with the U.S. Department of Education's regulation (34 C.F.R. §600.9) regarding legal authorization to provide postsecondary education through distance or correspondence education in a state in which a college is not physically located or in which it is otherwise subject to state jurisdiction as determined by the state, Wallace Community College is authorized to provide distance learning to residents residing outside of the state of Alabama through participation National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (NC-SARA).

Students seeking to enroll in the Wallace Community College distance learning program residing outside the state of Alabama, but within the United States, District of Columbia, and U.S. Territories (excluding international locations), should check the College's state authorization status by visiting the College Web site at <http://wallace.edu/about/consumer-information/>. Interested parties may also contact the Distance Learning Department by email at dl@wallace.edu or by phone at (334) 556-6905 regarding enrollment in distance learning courses.

Students wishing to file a complaint regarding the distance learning program at Wallace Community College may refer to the following link on the College Web site for the appropriate state complaint processes, <http://wallace.edu/about/consumer-information/>.