COS 164: Facial Machines

This is a course designed to provide practical experience using the vapor and facial machine with hydraulic chair. Topics include the uses of electricity and safety practices, machine and apparent, use of the magnifying lamp, and light therapy. Upon completion, the student will be able to demonstrate an understanding of electrical safety and skills in the use of facial machines.
Credits: 3
Lab Hours: 9
Lecture Hours: 0
Prerequisites: As required by college.