

MHT 100: Introduction to Inpatient and Residential Operations

This course is designed to provide information regarding the operation of inpatient or residential treatment facilities. The basis of treatment, services provided, the role of staff members, and various methods of treatment for patients/residents with mental health diagnoses are explored.

Credits: 4

Lab Hours: 6

Lecture Hours: 2