

ORI 105: Orientation and Student Success

This course combines the curriculum of ORI 101 with an increased focus dedicated to student success skills including critical thinking, writing, time management as well as interpersonal communication. ORI 105 is offered in a traditional lecture, hybrid lecture, and online format. ORI 105 is designed for students who place into one or more developmental courses or who would benefit from increased college readiness training.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 0

Lecture Hours: 3